DECISION

Dispute Codes MNSD, FF

Introduction

Some documentary evidence and written arguments has been submitted by the parties prior to the hearing. I have thoroughly reviewed all submissions.

I also gave the parties the opportunity to give their evidence orally.

All testimony was taken under affirmation.

Decision and reasons

The landlord has not returned the tenants security deposit or applied for dispute resolution to keep any or all of tenant's security deposit and the time limit in which to apply is now past.

The Residential Tenancy Act states that, if the landlord does not either return the security deposit or apply for dispute resolution within 15 days after the later of the date the tenancy ends or the date the landlord receives the tenants forwarding address in writing, the landlord must pay the tenant double the amount of security deposit.

This tenancy ended on February 28, 2009 and the landlord had a forwarding address in writing by March 10, 2009 and there is no evidence to show that the tenant's right to return of the deposit has been extinguished.

Therefore I am required to order that the landlord must pay double the amount of the security deposit to the tenant.

The tenant paid a security deposit $475.00 on February 1, 2008 and therefore the landlord must pay $950.00 plus interest of $6.52, for a total of $956.52.

I also allow the applicants claim for the $50.00 filing fee that she paid for this hearing

Conclusion

I have issued an order for the respondent to pay $1006.52 to the applicant.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.

Dated: August 26, 2009.
