DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR, MNSD, MNDC, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order of possession for unpaid rent, a monetary order for unpaid rent, to keep the security deposit, compensation for damage or loss and recovery of the filing fee. The landlord participated in the conference call hearing but the tenants did not. The landlord presented evidence that the tenants were served with the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing by registered mail and in person. I found that the tenants had been properly served with notice of the landlord's claim and the date and time of the hearing and the hearing proceeded in their absence.

Issues to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to any of the above under the Act.

Summary of Background and Evidence

This tenancy started September 2009 with monthly rent of $975.00 and the tenant paid a security deposit of $450.00. On October 3, 2010 the landlord served the tenant with a Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent.

The landlord testified that the tenants owe rent for the months of October and November 2010 in the amount of $1950.00. The landlord is unsure if the tenants have vacated the unit as promised and the landlord is requesting an order of possession through this application and hearing.

Analysis

Based on the documentary evidence and testimony I find that the tenant was properly served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent. The tenant did not pay the outstanding rent within 5 days of receiving the notice and did not apply for dispute resolution to dispute the notice and is therefore conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice. Based on the above facts I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession. As for the monetary order, I find that the landlord has established a claim for $1950.00 in unpaid rent and damages. The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee.

Conclusion

I hereby grant the Landlord an Order of Possession, effective 2 days after service of the Order upon the Tenant. This Order must be served on the Tenant and may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I find that the landlord has established a monetary claim for $1950.00. The landlord is also entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee. I order the Landlord pursuant to s. 38(4) of the Act to keep the Tenant's $450.00 security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an monetary order under section 67 for the balance due of $1550.00 ($$1950.00 + $50.00 = $2000.00 - $450.00 = \1550.00).

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I hereby issue a monetary order in favour of the landlord in the amount of $1550.00. If the amount is not paid by the tenant, the order may be filed in the Provincial (Small Claims) Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
