Introduction

This hearing dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession based on the Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent dated January 2, 2011 and a monetary order for rent owed.

Both parties appeared and gave testimony during the conference call.

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be determined based on the testimony and the evidence are:

Whether or not the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession based on the 10-Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent

Whether or not the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation for rental arrears owed.

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted into evidence a copy of the 10-Day Notice to End Tenancy dated January 2, 2011 with effective date of January 13, 2011 and a copy of the tenancy agreement. The tenancy began on November 1, 2010, with rent of $425.00 at which time the tenant paid a security deposit of $212.50. The landlord testified that the tenant failed to pay $225.00 rent owed for December 2010 and $425.00 rent owed for January 2011, amounting to a total of $650.00. The landlord testified that the tenant has not paid the arrears nor vacated the unit and the landlord is seeking an Order of Possession and monetary order.

The tenant testified that the funds for the rent are forthcoming in the near future and will be paid.

Analysis

Based on the testimony of the landlord, I find that the tenant was served with a Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent in person. The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and did not apply to dispute the Notice and is therefore conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice. Based on the above facts I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession.

I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $650.00 for rental arrears. I order that the landlord retain the security deposit of $212.50 in partial satisfaction of the claim leaving a balance due of $437.50.

Conclusion

I hereby issue an Order of Possession in favour of the landlord effective two days after service on the tenant. This order must be served on the Respondent and may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

I hereby grant the Landlord an order under section 67 for $436.50. This order must be served on the Respondent and may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
