DECISION

Dispute Codes FF MNDC MNR MNSD OPR

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the landlord for an order for possession, a monetary order and an order allowing retention of the security deposit in partial satisfaction of the claim. Both parties attended the hearing and had an opportunity to be heard.

Issues

Is the landlord entitled to the requested orders?

Background and Evidence

This tenancy began on September 1, 2010. The rent is $1100.00 due in advance on the first day of each month. A security deposit of $550.00 was paid at the start of the tenancy. On September 2, 2011 the tenant was served with a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent. The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and did not file an application to dispute the Notice.

The parties agree that at present the tenant owes $300.00 in rent for August, $300.00 in rent for September and $1,100.00 in rent for October.

Analysis

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent the tenant must, within five days, either pay the full amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If, as in the present case, the tenant does neither of these two things, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

I am also satisfied based on the evidence before me that the landlord has established a monetary claim for unpaid rent in the total amount of $1,700.00.

Conclusion

Order for Possession - Based on the above background, evidence and analysis I find that the landlord is entitled to an order for possession effective two days after service on the tenant. This order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Monetary Order and Security Deposit - I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $1,750.00 comprised of $1,700.00 in unpaid rent and the $50.00 fee paid by the landlord for this application. I order that the landlord retain the deposit and interest ($0.00) of $550.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the landlord an order under section 67 for the balance due of $1,200.00. This order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
