DECISION

Dispute Codes

OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the "Act"), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an Order of Possession and a monetary order for unpaid rent.

The landlord submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on June 12, 2012, the landlord served the female tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding via personal service. The landlord further submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on June 11, 2012, the landlord served the male tenant with the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding by sending same via registered mail.

Based on the written submissions of the landlord, I find that the tenants have been duly served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents.

Issue(s) to be Decided

The issues to be decided are whether the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent and to a monetary Order for unpaid rent, pursuant to sections 46, 55 and 67 of the Act.

Background and Evidence

The landlord submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding for the female tenant;
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Proceeding for the male tenant – deemed served 5 days after the registered mail was sent (June 16, 2012);

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the parties on February 18, 2011 indicating a monthly rent of $715.00 due on the first day of the month.
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent which was issued on May 30, 2012 with an effective vacancy date 10 days after received by the tenant by posting it on the tenant's door and stating the amount of unpaid rent as $452.00. The tenant was deemed served on the third day after the Notice was posted – June 02, 2012.
- The landlord's application for dispute resolution claims unpaid rent for May 2012 in the amount of $452.00.

Documentary evidence filed by the landlord indicates that the tenant had failed to pay all rent owed and was served the 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent by posting it on the tenant's door on May 30, 2012. The Notice states that the tenant had five days to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end 10 days from the service date. The tenant did not apply to dispute the Notice to End Tenancy within five days from the deemed received date – June 04, 2012.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and accept that the tenant has been served with notice to end tenancy as declared by the landlord.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenant has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46 (4) of the Act.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenant is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice. Therefore, I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order for unpaid rent.

Conclusion

I find that the landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession effective two days after service on the tenant and this Order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

I find that the landlord is entitled to monetary compensation pursuant to section 67 in the amended amount of $452.00 comprised of rent owed. This Order must be served on the tenant and if necessary may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
