DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR, MNSD, FF

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlord for an order of possession, and a monetary order for unpaid rent.

Both parties appeared, gave testimony and were provided the opportunity to present their evidence orally and in written and documentary form, and to cross-examine the other party, and make submissions to me.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the landlord entitled to an order of possession for unpaid rent?

Is the landlord entitled to a monetary order?

Is the landlord entitled to recover the cost of the filing fee?

Background and Evidence

The parties entered into a fixed term tenancy which began on July 1, 2012 and the agreement was to expire on December 31, 2012. Rent in the amount of $1,100.00 was payable on the first of each month.

The tenant admits he did not pay the security deposit as required by the tenancy agreement and has not paid any rent to the landlord.

The tenant acknowledged he was served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent on August 2, 2012. The notice informed the tenant that the notice would be cancelled if the rent was paid within five days. The notice also explains the tenant had five days to dispute the notice.

Analysis

Based on the above, the testimony and evidence, and on a balance of probabilities, I find as follows:

The tenant has not paid the outstanding rent and did not apply to dispute the notice and is therefore conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice.

I find that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession effective two days after service on the tenant. This order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

I find that the landlord has established a total monetary claim of $3,350.00 comprised of unpaid rent for July, August and September 2012 and the $50.00 fee paid by the landlord for this application.

I grant the landlord an order under section 67 in the above amount.

This order may be filed in the Provincial Court (Small Claims) and enforced as an order of that court.

The landlord is at liberty to apply for further compensation for loss of rent.

Conclusion

The tenant failed to pay rent and did not file to dispute the notice to end tenancy. The tenant is presumed under the law to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the notice to end tenancy.

The landlord is granted an order of possession, and may keep the security deposit and interest in partial satisfaction of the claim. I grant a monetary order for the above amount.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
