DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR, FF

Introduction

This hearing was convened in response to an application by the Landlord pursuant to the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”) for Orders as follows:

1. An Order of Possession - Section 55;
2. A Monetary Order for unpaid rent - Section 67; and
3. An Order to recover the filing fee for this application - Section 72.

The Landlord and Tenant were each given full opportunity to be heard, to present evidence and to make submissions.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Is the notice to end tenancy valid?

Is the Landlord entitled to an Order of Possession?

Is the Landlord entitled to the monetary amounts claimed?

Background and Evidence

The tenancy began on May 1, 2012. Rent of $720.00 is payable in advance on the first day of each month. At the outset of the tenancy, the Landlord collected a security deposit from the Tenant in the amount of $360.00. The Tenant owed arrears and failed to pay rent for February 2013 and on February 4, 2013 the Landlord served the Tenant with a 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent (the “Notice”). The Tenant did not pay rent for March 2013, did not dispute the Notice and has not moved out of the unit. The Tenant offered to settle the dispute at the hearing by paying the outstanding rent immediately however the Landlord refused to consider this offer. The Landlord withdraws its claim for a $25.00 NSF fee. The Landlord claims $1,980.00 and an Order of Possession.

Analysis

Section 46 of the Act requires that upon receipt of a Notice to End Tenancy for non-payment of rent the tenant must, within five days, either pay the full amount of the arrears indicated on the Notice or dispute the notice by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution with the Residential Tenancy Branch. If the tenant does neither of these two things, the tenant is conclusively presumed to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the effective date of the Notice. Based on the undisputed evidence I find that the Tenant was served with a notice to end tenancy for non-payment of rent and I find the notice to be valid. The Tenant has not filed an application to dispute the notice and has not paid the outstanding rent. Given these facts, I find that the Landlord is entitled to an Order of Possession effective March 31, 2013. I also find that the Landlord has established a monetary claim for $1,980.00 in unpaid rent to the end of March 2013. The Landlord is entitled to recovery of the $50.00 filing fee for a total monetary amount of $2,030.00. Setting the security deposit of $360.00 plus zero interest off the entitlement leaves $1,670.00 owed by the Tenant to the Landlord.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession effective March 31, 2013 to the Landlord.

I order that the Landlord retain the deposit and interest of $360.00 in partial satisfaction of the claim and I grant the Landlord an order under Section 67 of the Act for the balance due of $1,670.00. If necessary, this order may be filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
