A matter regarding CAPREIT and [tenant name suppressed to protect privacy]

DECISION

Dispute Codes: OPR, MNR, FF

Introduction

This hearing was scheduled in response to the landlord's application for an order of possession / a monetary order as compensation for unpaid rent / and recovery of the filing fee. The landlord's agent attended and gave affirmed testimony.

The landlord's agent testified that the application for dispute resolution and notice of hearing were served by way of registered mail. Evidence submitted by the landlord includes the Canada Post tracking number for the registered mail, and the Canada Post website informs that the item was "successfully delivered." Despite this, the tenant did not appear. The landlord's agent also testified that the tenant appears to have vacated the unit on or about November 24, 2013, and provided no forwarding address. Accordingly, I consider the application for an order of possession to be withdrawn.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Whether the landlord is entitled to any of the above under the Act, Regulation or tenancy agreement.

Background and Evidence

Pursuant to a written tenancy agreement, the fixed term of tenancy is from March 1, 2013 to February 28, 2014. Monthly rent of $850.00 is due and payable in advance on the first day of each month, and a security deposit of $425.00 was collected.

Arising from rent which was unpaid when due on November 1, 2013, the landlord issued a 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent dated November 5, 2013. The notice was served by way of posting on the unit door on that same date. Subsequently, the tenant made no further payments, and she vacated the unit on or about November 24, 2013. The landlord's agent testified that advertising was done on-line and by way of the landlord's website, and that new renters were found effective from February 1, 2014.

Analysis

Based on the documentary evidence and the affirmed / undisputed testimony of the landlord's agent, I find that the tenant was served with a 10 day notice to end tenancy for unpaid rent dated November 5, 2013. The tenant did not pay the outstanding rent, and did not apply to dispute the notice before vacating the unit on or before November 24, 2013. Accordingly, I find that the landlord has established a claim of $2,600.00:

$850.00: unpaid rent for November 2013

$1,700.00: unpaid rent / loss of rental income for December 2013 & January 2014

$50.00: filing fee

Section 72 of the Act addresses Director's orders: fees and monetary orders, in part:

72(2) If the director orders a party to a dispute resolution proceeding to pay any amount to the other, including an amount under subsection (1), the amount may be deducted

(b) in the case of payment from a tenant to a landlord, from any security deposit or pet damage deposit due to the tenant.

I order that the landlord retain the security deposit of $425.00, and I grant a monetary order under section 67 of the Act for the balance of $2,175.00 ($2,600.00 - $425.00).

Conclusion

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I hereby issue a monetary order in favour of the landlord in the amount of $2,175.00. This order may be served on the tenant, filed in the Small Claims Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
