RECORD OF SETTLEMENT

Dispute Codes MNR, OPR, FF

Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the parties may attempt to settle their dispute during a hearing. Pursuant to this provision, discussion between the parties during the hearing led to a resolution. Specifically, it was agreed as follows;

1. Both parties agree that the landlord is entitled to an order of possession.
2. Both parties agree that the tenant is to pay the landlord $1200.00 for unpaid rent.

Pursuant to this agreement the landlord will be given an order of possession to reflect condition #1 of this agreement. Should it be necessary, this order may be filed in the Supreme Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

Pursuant to this agreement the landlord will be given a monetary order to reflect condition #2 of this agreement. Should it be necessary, this order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an order of that Court.

As the parties have benefited from the settlement of this dispute I decline to make a finding in regards to the recovery of the filing fee and the landlord must bear that cost.

The above particulars comprise full and final settlement of all aspects of the dispute arising from this application for both parties.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
