DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR, MNR

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the “Act”), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlords for an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent and a Monetary Order.

The landlords submitted a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on December 16, 2016, the landlords personally served Tenant M.H. the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding. The landlords had Tenant M.H. and a witness sign the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding to confirm personal service. Based on the written submissions of the landlords and in accordance with section 89 of the Act, I find that Tenant M.H. has been duly served with the Direct Request Proceeding documents on December 16, 2016.

The landlords have not provided a signed Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding for Tenant D.H. and have not established that Tenant D.H. has been served the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding. Therefore, I dismiss the landlords’ application against Tenant D.H. with leave to reapply. I will hear the landlords’ application against Tenant M.H.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

The landlords submitted the following evidentiary material:

- A copy of the Proof of Service of the Notice of Direct Request Proceeding served to Tenant M.H.;
- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlord and the tenants on October 4, 2016, indicating a monthly rent of $1,800.00, due on the first day of the month for a tenancy commencing on October 15, 2016;
- A Monetary Order Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy; and
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated December 7, 2016, and posted to the tenants' door on December 7, 2016, with a stated effective vacancy date of December 17, 2016, for $2,700.00 in unpaid rent.

Witnessed documentary evidence filed by the landlords indicates that the 10 Day Notice was posted to the tenants' door at 2:00 pm on December 7, 2016. The 10 Day Notice states that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end.

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and in accordance with sections 88 and 90 of the Act, I find that Tenant M.H. was deemed served with the 10 Day Notice on December 10, 2016, three days after its posting.

I find that Tenant M.H. was obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $1,800.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

I accept the evidence before me that Tenant M.H. has failed to pay the rent owed in full within the 5 days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that 5 day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that Tenant M.H. is conclusively presumed under section 46(5) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the 10 Day Notice, December 20, 2016.

Therefore, I find that the landlords are entitled to an Order of Possession and a Monetary Order in the amount of $2,700.00, the amount claimed by the landlords, for unpaid rent owing for November 2016 and December 2016 as of December 16, 2016.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlords effective two days after service of this Order on Tenant M.H. Should Tenant M.H. fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to section 67 of the Act, I find that the landlords are entitled to a Monetary Order in the amount of $2,700.00 for rent owed for November 2016 and December 2016. The landlords are provided with this Order in the above terms and Tenant M.H. must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should Tenant M.H. fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

The landlords' application against Tenant D.H. is dismissed with leave to reapply.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
