RECORD OF SETTLEMENT

Dispute Codes MNDCL-S, MNRL-S, FFL

Section 63 of the Residential Tenancy Act provides that the parties may attempt to settle their dispute during a hearing. Pursuant to this provision, discussion between the parties at the outset of the hearing led to a resolution. Specifically, it was agreed as follows;

1. Both parties agree that the landlords will retain the $1500.00 in security and pet deposit in full satisfaction of their claim; and
2. Neither party will pursue any further monetary claims regarding this tenancy through the Branch.

The parties confirmed at the end of the hearing that this agreement was made on a voluntary basis and that the parties understood the nature of this full and final settlement of this matter.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
