DECISION

Dispute Codes OPR-DR, MNR-DR, FFL

Introduction

This matter proceeded by way of an ex parte Direct Request Proceeding, pursuant to section 55(4) of the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act), and dealt with an Application for Dispute Resolution by the landlords to obtain an Order of Possession based on unpaid rent, to obtain monetary compensation for unpaid rent, and to recover the filing fee paid for the application.

This decision is written based on the Application for Dispute Resolution, evidence, and submissions provided by the landlords on June 15, 2022.

The landlords submitted a signed Proof of Service Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on June 30, 2022, the landlords sent Tenant C.S. the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request by registered mail to the rental unit. The landlords provided a copy of the Canada Post Customer Receipt containing the tracking number to confirm this mailing.

Based on the written submissions of the landlords and in accordance with sections 89 and 90 of the Act, I find that the Direct Request Proceeding documents were served on June 30, 2022 and are deemed to have been received by Tenant C.S. on July 5, 2022, the fifth day after their registered mailing.

The landlords submitted a second signed Proof of Service Notice of Direct Request Proceeding which declares that on June 30, 2022, the landlords sent Tenant C.A. the Notice of Dispute Resolution Proceeding - Direct Request by e-mail. The landlords provided a copy of the outgoing e-mail containing the Direct Request documents as attachments to confirm this service. The landlords have also submitted an Address for Service form which was signed by Tenant C.A. on June 29, 2022, indicating that Tenant C.A. agreed to receive documents by e-mail.

Based on the written submissions of the landlords and in accordance with sections 43(2) and 44 of the Residential Tenancy Regulation, I find that the Direct Request Proceeding documents were served on June 30, 2022 and are deemed to have been received by Tenant C.A. on July 3, 2022, the third day after their e-mailing.

Issue(s) to be Decided

Are the landlords entitled to an Order of Possession for unpaid rent pursuant to sections 46 and 55 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to monetary compensation for unpaid rent pursuant to section 67 of the Act?

Are the landlords entitled to recover the filing fee for this application pursuant to section 72 of the Act?

Background and Evidence

I have reviewed all written submissions and evidence before me; however, only the evidence and submissions relevant to the issues and findings in this matter are described in this decision.

The landlords submitted the following relevant evidentiary material:

- A copy of a residential tenancy agreement which was signed by the landlords and the tenants on July 30, 2021, indicating a monthly rent of $1,490.00, due on the first day of each month for a tenancy commencing on August 1, 2021
- A copy of a 10 Day Notice to End Tenancy for Unpaid Rent (the 10 Day Notice) dated June 2, 2022, for $1,490.00 in unpaid rent. The 10 Day Notice provides that the tenants had five days from the date of service to pay the rent in full or apply for Dispute Resolution or the tenancy would end on the stated effective vacancy date of June 17, 2022
- A copy of a Proof of Service Notice to End Tenancy form which indicates that the 10 Day Notice was sent to the tenants by registered mail at 2:06 pm on June 2, 2022
- A copy of a Canada Post tracking report containing the tracking number to confirm that the 10 Day Notice was sent to the tenants on June 2, 2022, and that a notice card was left on the tenants' door on June 8, 2022, advising the tenants where to pick up the registered mailing
- A Direct Request Worksheet showing the rent owing and paid during the relevant portion of this tenancy

Analysis

I have reviewed all documentary evidence and I find that the tenants were obligated to pay the monthly rent in the amount of $1,490.00, as per the tenancy agreement.

In accordance with the tracking report and section 88 of the Act, I find that the 10 Day Notice was served on June 2, 2022, and is deemed to have been received by the tenants on June 8, 2022, the day the notice card was left on the tenants' door by Canada Post.

I accept the evidence before me that the tenants have failed to pay the rent owed in full within the five days granted under section 46(4) of the Act and did not dispute the 10 Day Notice within that five-day period.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the tenants are conclusively presumed under sections 46(5) and 53(2) of the Act to have accepted that the tenancy ended on the corrected effective date of the 10 Day Notice, June 18, 2022.

Therefore, I find that the landlords are entitled to an Order of Possession and a monetary award in the amount of $1,490.00, the amount claimed by the landlords for unpaid rent owing for June 2022.

As the landlords were successful in this application, I find that the landlords are entitled to recover the $100.00 filing fee paid for this application.

Conclusion

I grant an Order of Possession to the landlords effective two days after service of this Order on the tenant(s). Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed and enforced as an Order of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Pursuant to sections 67 and 72 of the Act, I grant the landlords a Monetary Order in the amount of $1,590.00 for rent owed for June 2022 and for the recovery of the filing fee for this application. The landlords are provided with this Order in the above terms and the tenant(s) must be served with this Order as soon as possible. Should the tenant(s) fail to comply with this Order, this Order may be filed in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court and enforced as an Order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
