DECISION

Dispute Codes CNL

Introduction

This hearing dealt with an application by the tenant under the Residential Tenancy Act (the Act) for the following:

- Cancellation of a Two Month Notice to End Tenancy for Landlord's use ("Two Month Notice") pursuant to section 49;

The tenant attended with the advocate NS ("the tenant"). The landlord attended.

Both parties had opportunity to provide affirmed testimony, present evidence and make submissions. No issues of service were raised. The hearing process was explained.

Recording

The parties were cautioned that recordings of the hearing were not permitted pursuant to Rule 6.11 of the Residential Tenancy Branch Rules. Both parties confirmed their understanding of the requirement and further confirmed they were not making recordings of the hearing.

Delivery of Decision

Each party confirmed their email address to which a copy of the Decision will be sent.

Settlement

Before the conclusion of this hearing, the parties discussed the issues between them, engaged in a conversation, turned their minds to compromise, and achieved a resolution of their dispute.

Pursuant to section 63 of the Act, the Arbitrator may assist the parties to settle their dispute and if the parties do so during the dispute resolution proceedings, the settlement may be recorded in the form of a Decision or an Order.

Given the agreement reached between the parties during the proceedings, I find that the parties have settled their dispute and the following records this settlement as a Decision:

The parties agreed as follows:

1. Further to the Two Month Notice of March 27, 2022, the tenancy between the parties will end at 1:00 PM on October 31, 2022 by which time the tenant and any other occupants will return vacant possession of the rental unit to the landlord.
2. The landlord agreed that the tenant shall not pay rent for the month of October 2022.
3. The landlord shall return the security deposit of $650.00 to the tenant by October 1, 2022, at 5:00 PM.

In support of this settlement and with the agreement of both parties, I grant the landlord an op and the tenant a Monetary Order as follows:

1. Order of Possession effective 1:00 PM on October 31, 2022
2. Monetary Order for $650.00

The Order(s) must be read in conjunction with the above settlement agreement and the landlord must not seek to enforce the Order of Possession on the tenant unless the tenant fails to meet the conditions of this agreement.

Should either party violate the terms of this agreement, the tenancy agreement, or the Act, it is open to the other party to take steps under the Act for an appropriate remedy. Should the parties fail to comply with these Order(s), the Order(s) may be filed and enforced as Order(s) of the Courts of British Columbia.

This settlement agreement was reached in accordance with section 63 of the Act. Each party stated they understood and agreed to the terms of this settlement. The settlement was fully discussed by the parties in the hearing. The parties testified they understood and agreed the above terms are final, binding, and enforceable, and settle all aspects of this application.

The parties are bound by the terms of this agreement, as well as by the terms of their tenancy agreement and the Act.

Based on the above, I find that all matters between these parties raised in this application are resolved pursuant to the above agreed terms.

Conclusion

The Application for Dispute Resolution for settled on the above terms of settlement.

Pursuant to the above settlement, I issue the following Order(s):

1. Order of Possession effective 1:00 PM on October 31, 2022
2. Monetary Order for $650.00

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
