DECISION

Dispute Codes   CNC

Introduction

On January 7, 2023 the Tenant submitted an Application for Dispute Resolution under the Residential Tenancy Act ("the Act") asking to cancel a One Month Notice to End Tenancy dated December 28, 2022 ("the One Month Notice").

The Tenant, the Tenant's Advocate N.S., and the Landlord's Agents D.D. and L.H. attended the hearing at the appointed date and time. The opportunity for settlement was discussed with the parties during the hearing. The parties were advised there is no obligation to resolve the dispute through settlement, but that I could assist the parties to reach an agreement. I indicated on several occasions that if either party did not wish to resolve this matter through a mutually agreed settlement, I was prepared to hear their evidence and make a decision.

Settlement Agreement

During the hearing, the parties agreed to settle this matter, on the following conditions:

1. The parties agree that the tenancy will end on or before June 30, 2023 at 1:00 p.m.
2. The Landlord is granted an order of possession effective June 30, 2023, at 1:00 p.m. The Landlord must serve the Tenant with the order of possession.
3. The Tenant withdraws his application in full as part of this mutually settled agreement.

This settlement agreement was reached in accordance with section 63 of the Act.

Conclusion

I order the parties to comply with the terms of their mutually settled agreement described above.

The Landlord has been granted an order of possession effective June 30, 2023 at 1:00 p.m. This order must be served on the Tenant and may be filed in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and enforced as an order of that Court.

This decision is made on authority delegated to me by the Director of the Residential Tenancy Branch under Section 9.1(1) of the Residential Tenancy Act.
